St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.-From the way pitch to-day. the Browns treated Washington this afternoon, McAleer's nine must have concluded to be good and give the St. Louis fans the kind of ball to cheer them up during the declining days of the season. With Frederick Glade as a leader the Browns fell upon Case Patten and slammed the latter's slants around the lot for fourteen hits and seven runs, while Can-five hits and three runs off Glade. In the field the Browns also excelled, and, outside of the opening innings, the Nationals never had much of a chance. Glade has been to the bad of late, but he pitched in fine form to-day. Not only did he hold Washington to five hits, but tillon's Nationals were able to collect but have been shut off by perfect fielding. No Hits After Fourth. Washington did not get a hit after the fourth inning, and for the final five in- ness. nings Glade pitched a perfect game. His support was of the best, as but one error was made behind him during the game. Patten was effective for but two innings and then the Browns found his delivery at will. In the third inning the team batted around, and there was not an when he took Heydon's place at the ba inning after that, with the exception of in the ninth inning.
